

Nikoli Daigneault

nikolidaig@proton.me

Education

Bachelor of Arts in English

Coastal Carolina University, 2019 to Present

- Concentration in Composition, Rhetoric, and Linguistics.
- Minor in German

Experience

Foreign Language Tutor

CCU Intercultural & Language Resource Center, 2021 to Present

- Tutoring students in beginning and intermediate German language courses.
- Cataloged and organized over 300 books, films, and other media in the center's library

Resident Advisor

CCU University Housing, 2020 to 2022

- Oversaw 40 first-year students in student accomodation.
- Served as a conduit to campus resources as they adjusted to college life.
- Documented and resolved incidents occuring in the halls.
- Offered immediate support during emergencies to ensure a safe living environment

Academic Achievements

Publication in The Rage Zine (Forthcoming)

CCU Women's and Gender Studies, Fall 2023

An excerpt of my research on queer students' compositions will be published in the Fall 2023 edition of The Rage, a student-led magazine that focuses on works by and about minoritized voices.

Winthrop University Interdisciplinary Conference

Winthrop University, February 2023

Presented a literary criticism paper at Winthrop University's the third annual interdisciplinary conference.

Roger K. Johansen Best Essay Contest for First Year Writing

CCU English Department, 2019

Awarded first place in a competition for the best student writing produced in English 101, 102, and 211 courses.